

Solution to Study 0018

Please answer true or false.

- 1) Christian baptism is the same as water baptism. TRUE
- 2) Christian baptism is the same as water baptism, which is the same as John's baptism. FALSE
- 3) In Christian baptism, only Christians are involved. TRUE
- 4) The only condition for Christian baptism is that you submit yourself for baptism. FALSE
- 5) Jesus' baptism by John was a sign that Christian baptism and John's baptism are the same. FALSE
- 6) No sinner can be baptized under Christian baptism. TRUE
- 7) Children can be baptized under Christian baptism, whether or not they understand repentance. FALSE
- 8) Infants need Christian baptism, just in case they die before they grow old. FALSE
- 9) When your child is about to go to boarding house, you should quickly have him or her baptized so that you can rest assured that he or she is in right standing with God. FALSE
- 10) As long as water is involved, it does not matter whether it is by immersion or sprinkling. FALSE
- 11) Christian baptism is the mark of a Christian's commitment to God and His Kingdom. TRUE
- 12) By Christian baptism, we publicly identify with Christ's death and resurrection. TRUE
- 13) Our public identification with Christ is to make it difficult for us to backslide. TRUE
- 14) Christian baptism is a sign of our conviction that Jesus Christ died and resurrected from death. TRUE
- 15) Christian baptism is an act of obedience to God's command. TRUE
- 16) Christian baptism saves us from sin. FALSE
- 17) Christian baptism is the evidence of our faith in Christ. TRUE
- 18) When Jesus Christ said to John "we must fulfil all righteousness", he was instituting Holy Communion. FALSE
- 19) Without being baptized in water, you cannot partake in Holy Communion. TRUE/FALSE. We don't have to insist on Christian baptism before a believer in Christ can partake of Holy Communion. However, if there is the opportunity to be baptized by immersion in water, and a person refuses to be thus baptized, then he is no longer to be allowed to partake of the Lord's Supper. But even then, those who can take Holy Communion should make sure that they examine themselves before they partake of Holy Communion.
- 20) Christian baptism is the believer's graduation ceremony, which makes him ready for heaven. FALSE