

Solution to Study 0025

Please answer true or false to the statements below.

- (1) The laying on of hands can be used to transfer evil spirits on to another person. FALSE (in the strict sense this is not possible)/TRUE (in general, this is possible, where the recipient is not a believer in Christ, or where he is, he is not living right, hence we need to be living right, and also not be hasty to submit ourselves to just anyone for laying on of hands.)
- (2) The laying on of hands can be done by the placing of the hands of a minister on another person for the purpose of receiving a spiritual benefit. TRUE
- (3) Only one person can lay hands on another before it can be said to be the laying on of hands. Where there is more than one person laying hands on another person, it becomes something else. FALSE
- (4) Any person who lays hands on another can impart a spiritual benefit. FALSE
- (5) The lifestyle of the person laying hands is as important, as the lifestyle of the person on whom hands are being laid in the laying on of hands. TRUE
- (6) A relationship must exist between the person laying hands and the person on whom hands are being laid in scriptural laying on of hands. TRUE
- (7) The laying on of hands can take the form of stretching hands over a congregation. TRUE
- (8) A wrong notion of the laying on of hands is that you can receive a spiritual blessing through the laying on of hands even if you are living contrary to God. TRUE
- (9) When a person needs money he should submit himself to a minister of God who has lots of money for the laying on of his hands. FALSE
- (10) A sick person needs to submit himself to a minister of God who is a medical doctor by profession. FALSE
- (11) Only an apostle can lay hands on a person who is to be consecrated for divine service or ordination. FALSE
- (12) Before hands can be laid on another person, those hands need to have been touched by the Holy Spirit. TRUE
