

Solution to Study 0051

Please state true or false to the statements below:

1. The very foundation of true worship in the Old Covenant Era was a personal relationship with God. TRUE
2. A covenant can be an agreement between two men, or two communities. TRUE
3. A covenant is a binding arrangement which can only be broken by any Party at the pain of suffering the consequence of the breach of the covenant. TRUE
4. God's covenant is one initiated by God Himself. TRUE
5. God did not want bland worship, so He entered into a covenant relationship with Israel in the wilderness to enable a rich relational worship. TRUE
6. Without being in a covenant relationship with God, a man could not even offer a sacrifice to God. TRUE
7. A covenant can be binding on every generation of a person with whom God has had a covenant, even if they have not had a personal one with God. TRUE
8. A covenant can be said to be a set of promises made by the Parties involved and which is binding on them throughout their generations. TRUE
9. Christian marriage is, in reality, a covenant between a man and his wife, with God as the Supervisor. TRUE
10. Old Covenant Era worship required that the worshipper knew Who was being worshipped. TRUE