

Solution to Study 0052

Please state true or false to the statements below:

1. Once a person is in a covenant relationship with God, nothing can go wrong. FALSE
2. Breaking God's covenant is a broken relationship with God, which is equivalent to broken worship of God. TRUE
3. It is possible to have seen God, and still be involved in idolatry. TRUE
4. Regardless of the overwhelming presence of God, idolatry is still possible. TRUE
5. The primary reason for the salvation of man is to enable him worship God. TRUE
6. When we focus on ourselves rather than on God, we enter into idolatry. TRUE
7. When we focus on God's gifts more than on God Himself, we enter into idolatry. TRUE
8. It is possible to be denied entry into the kingdom of heaven by breaking God's covenant. TRUE
9. There are similarities in the worship of God and of idols, so we can learn a lot from our fathers and others who worshipped idols. FALSE
10. If we don't love God, we would invariably break His covenant, and cannot truly worship God. TRUE
11. Human memory is short, and this is why God insists that we "continue" in the things He has asked us to do. TRUE
12. The covenant God made with the children of Israel emphasized the worship of God, and mentioned promises of provision, protection, and blessings, as a result of their sincere and truthful worship of Him. TRUE